

Animals

Power of Reading:

Power of Reading:

Expressive Arts & Design

We are learning to:

- Imaginatively play with small world.
- Listen and respond to songs and music.
- Experiment with marks and mark making/.

Literacy

We are learning to:

- Identify signage in the classroom.
- Copy letters and numerals with increasing control

Physical Development

We are learning to:

- Show increasing control over using small tools. For instance pencils for drawing and writing.

Communication and Language

We are learning to:

- Listen for a longer period of time.

Maths

We are learning to:

- Subitise and count to 6.
- Say what comes next when counting and singing songs.
- Compare height, length, mass and capacity.

- To use characters in our play.

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

We are learning to:

- Become more confident in the EYFS setting and be less nervous about new experiences.

Understanding the world

We are learning to:

- Tell the differences between winter and spring.
- Recognise changes in a chickens life cycle.

