Grammar

Remember, if you get stuck, all the words in capitals are explained in the grammar booklet I sent to your parents so just ask them to help.

Create your own expanded noun phrases to really describe something specifically following the model below:

| DETERMINER | ADJECTIVE | COMMA | ADJECTIVE | NOUN | extra information |
|------------|------------|-------|-----------|---------|--------------------------------|
| The | glimmering | , | octagonal | coins | with ancient rulers' heads on. |
| Some | | | | | |
| | | | | monkeys | |
| | | | | | that flap noisily in the wind |
| Four | | | | | |

Now describe the items in your bedroom, e.g. The comfortable, purple desk chair with six wheels. Create a descriptive paragraph that is so detailed, the reader would be able to imagine they were standing in your room.

Wider curriculum

Write a newspaper article of up to 500 words with the title "Making the most of Lockdown". Share hints and tips to beat the boredom and suggest new skills, hobbies and interests people at home (children and adults) can develop. Keep your article positive and practical. You could even include a photo if you've learned a new skill. If you'd like me to share it with the whole school when you've done, email it to admin@warrenacademy.co.uk.
